

LANGUAGE ARTS FESTIVAL AT THE PALACE THEATER

May 13, 2011

Master of Ceremonies - Tom Chute, WATR

Above: Waterbury Arts Magnet School Dancers - "We're In The Money" from 42nd Street

Below: Chase School - Friendship Quotes

Left: Carrington School - "The Empty Pot"

Below: Walsh School - "Friendship" and "The White Rose."

Below: Tinker School -
"Unpack Your Adjectives" and
"Conjunction Junction."

Left: Wilby High School

- "School Life" - Jeanetta Carney
- "Fear" - Estrella Rangel
- "Love is Lost and Gone" and "A Bird With No Song" - Tylinda Cruz
- "Leave the Petals" and "Tell Me Of A Time We Really Laughed" - Amaris Cruz
- "Untitled" - Regina Keels

- Washington School -
- "Once Upon A Crime" - Zhane'ly Hernandez
- "The Lightning Thief" - Gisel Jones
- "Pictures of Hollis Woods" - Cynthia Rosa
- "New Moon" - Nirmala Doobay

West Side Middle School

“Percy Jackson, the Lightening Thief”
by Francis Forino

“The Virtual Tour”
with Zuanny Araujo, Tea Culani and Jasmin
Caraballo

“Fish O’Matic”
with Randall Quinones, Jeffrey Garcia and Oscar Montes

Miciah Holman playing “I Believe I Can Fly.”

Wallace Middle School - Poems with Elizabeth Anelicola and Tesi'ah Lawrence

Rotella Magnet -

“No, David” with Haase Ramalho, Emily Michael and Casini Lopez

Rotella Magnet - dance interpretation of Harriet Tubman

Bucks Hill School -
“Cinder-ella Plays Ball” and “The Lion and the Mouse.”

Maloney - Poems

Waterbury Arts Magnet - Odyssey

Enlightenment Schools - poems by Rose Castillo, Shalanda McKenn and LaShayla Yon

Kennedy High School
“Essay About Joe” by Alyssa Highes
“CAPT” by Amaralis Henderson
“Black History Month Essay” by Angela Carr

Waterbury Arts Magnet - “In These Delightful Pleasant Groves.”

“The Impossible Dream” by Madeline McCord.

“Tribute to Dr. Snead” - Genaya Preston, Michele Saunders, Omunique Owens.

